

The Great Irish Famine Commemoration Committee,
Sydney Living Museums and the Consul General of Ireland

Warmly invite you to the

19th Annual Commemoration

VENUE: The Irish Famine Memorial, Hyde Park Barracks, Macquarie Street, Sydney

DATE: Sunday, 26th August 2018, at 12.00 (formalities begin 12:30)

Address by Paul Lynch, NSW Legislative Assembly, and member for Liverpool and has a long-standing interest in both Australian and Irish history and human rights.

We encourage you to lay flowers and observe a silence reflection

Followed by traditional Irish hospitality, refreshments, music & song and chance to meet up with friends

Admission: $10 per adult for members and $15 for non-members.
Family tickets $25 for members, $35 for non-members.

Ticket includes free entry to the Hyde Park Barracks Museum

Pre-purchase tickets online at:

<https://gifcc2018.eventbrite.com.au>

OR

If you wish to RSVP do so by Wednesday 22nd August, to:

contact@irishfaminememorial.org

or buy tickets at the gate

Like us on Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/GreatIrishFamineMemorial>